St. Anne Learning Community Code of Conduct

Students and parents will use the Google Apps for Education products in a manner that is consistent with the technology-use agreement as well as the St. Anne School Learning Expectations: An Active Person of Faith, A Lifelong Learner, A Globally Aware Person, and A Well-Balanced Person. By only using this new tool for school-related purposes and in ways that are consistent with our technology-use agreement, learning expectations, and family handbook, families will avoid loss of this tool. As always, the expectation is for respect and responsibility.

Our family has read and understands the above Code of Conduct.
